POLICY STATEMENT (R*)

A college graduate seeking admission into a graduate program of the University must have a bachelor's degree or equivalent from a regionally accredited institution.

Each graduate program may establish its own admissions policies subject to review and approval by the School or College, the Graduate Council, the Faculty Senate, and the Provost.

If a program does not have an approved policy, the default University policy is 3.0 GPA and either the 40th percentile (master's and professional doctorates) or the 60th percentile (Ph.D.) on a nationally-normed examination.
