POLICY STATEMENT

Borrowing privileges are generally restricted to students, faculty, staff, and alumni of Florida International University, and to students, faculty, and staff of other institutions in the State University System and libraries with whom reciprocal borrowing agreements have been established. Active FIU Library Associates have borrowing privileges. Members of the general public are allowed to use library materials only within the library.

SCOPE

This Policy applies to students, faculty, staff, alumni, and the general public.

REASON FOR POLICY

To delineate procedures and regulations with regard to students, faculty, staff, alumni, and the general public for borrowing library resources.

PROCEDURE STATEMENT

- A valid library I.D. must be used to borrow materials from the FIU Libraries. In addition, a valid government issued photo I.D. is required to check out electronic materials.
- FIU faculty, staff, and currently enrolled FIU students will need to have a valid physical or digital FIU Photo I.D., which serves as the library card at the FIU Libraries. FIU adjunct faculty have the same circulation privileges as permanent FIU faculty members.
- FIU Alumni may continue to use their FIU I.D. cards.
- FCCS faculty, staff, and currently enrolled FCCS students will need to present a valid I.D. card from their home institution.
- SUS faculty, staff, and currently enrolled SUS students will need to have a valid Photo I.D. card from their home institution.
- Library Associates have privileges to most library services as explained in the Library Associates Policies.
- SEFLIN patrons must present a current SEFLIN access card from their home library before obtaining an FIU library card.
- Patrons participating in Special Programs, Courses and Seminars may be eligible for borrowing privileges when special arrangements have been made with the FIU Libraries. Please inquire at the Circulation Desk or the Administrative Office on either campus.
