SUBJECT (R*)	EFFECTIVE DATE (R*)	POLICY NUMBER (O*)
TUITION WAIVER PROGRAM (AFSCME)	June 2, 2017	1725.300

POLICY STATEMENT (R*)

Full time employees at the University are eligible to participate in the Tuition Waiver Program on a space available basis. Employees on leave are not eligible for tuition waiver except when the leave is granted as part of an educational program or professional development leave; however, employee’s eligible family members will be permitted to apply for the tuition waiver during the period the employee is on an approved leave. The employee is responsible for any tax liability arising from the use of this Tuition Waiver as per the Internal Revenue Service Code § 127 -Educational Assistance Program.

Eligible employees and their qualifying members, may enroll for up to a combined maximum of ten (10) credit hours of FIU instruction per term (Fall, Spring, or Summer) with eligible employee enrolling in no more than six (6) credit hours of the total ten (10) credit hours per term, without payment of the in-state portion of tuition, tuition differential, or the following per credit fees: financial aid fees, capital improvement trust fund fees, athletic fees, technology fees and activity and service fees. Normal term fees charged to students, specifically health, athletic fees, photo ID, and parking will also be waived for eligible employees. Any special laboratory, distance learning or any other fee must be paid by the employee and/or family member

Employees may enroll either as degree seeking students or as non-degree seeking students (special students). Employees enrolled as special students may be allowed to participate in the Tuition Waiver Program for courses that are specifically related to their job assignment and have been approved by their supervisor to register for the specific course. Family members must be enrolled as a degree-seeking student and the employee must provide a verification letter of the relationship.

Employees and/or family members may receive tuition waivers for regular lecture, on-line and laboratory courses, thesis, directed individual study, directed research courses, and internships. College of Law, College of Medicine, and non-credit courses are excluded. Family members are excluded from market rate and self-supporting programs offered through University College. However, employees enrolled in market rate and self-supporting programs offered through University College may receive a partial tuition waiver equivalent to the tuition waiver amount provided in a regular, state funded course specified in FIU Regulation 1101(4) (a) or (b).

Employees and family members will be covered a maximum of thirty (30) credits for dissertation courses (7980-7989) and nine (9) credit for thesis courses (6970-6979).

An employee or family member enrolled in an “A-F” graded course must receive a grade of “C” or better in any undergraduate level course or a grade of “B” or better in any graduate level course. An employee or family member enrolled in a “P/F” graded course must receive a “P”. Receipt of a lower grade will result in the employee being charged for the course. When taking more than the credit hours covered under this policy, the passing grade requirement will be applied toward the credit hours receiving the minimum passing grade.

An employees is to discuss with their supervisor their intent to take classes and should schedule classes during off-duty hours whenever possible. When a desired class cannot be scheduled during off-duty hours, the supervisor may adjust the employee’s work schedule, or allow the employee to use vacation l leave, accumulated compensatory time, or leave with/without pay based on the department’s business needs. The same is applicable if the employee is attending classes for Professional Development that are related to their job assignment.

Employees will be responsible for paying tuition for any courses dropped (except for courses dropped on an emergency basis) by the employee or employees’ family members after the official Drop/Add period during the first week of classes. If the employee and/or family member withdraws from the university before the end of the last day to withdraw from the University with a 25% refund of tuition, the employee or family member will be responsible for paying that portion of tuition and fees that is not subject to refund.

Eligibility will be established by the Division of Human Resources.
