<tr>
<td>Degree Program</td>

<tr>
<th>Program Track, Specialization, Concentration, Area of Emphasis</th>
<th>An organized curriculum, offered as part of an individual student’s degree program, which enhances or complements the degree to be awarded in a manner that leads to specific educational or occupational goals. In order to establish some uniformity across degree programs, this level of categorization should be termed a track unless a different terminology is required for accreditation or discipline purposes. The number of credit hours of a track, specialization, concentration, or area of emphasis shall not equal or exceed the number of credit hours established for a program major at the same degree level.</th>

<tr>
<td>Program Minor</td>
<td>An organized undergraduate curriculum, independent of the program major, which leads to the completion of specific education or occupational goals. Minors require a minimum of 12 credits.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Certificate</td>
<td>An organized curriculum offered as a distinct area of study that leads to specific educational or occupational goals. The minimum number of credits for an undergraduate certificate is 15 (academic certificates generally require 18 credits and professional certificates generally require 15 credits) and the minimum for a graduate certificate is 15 credits.</td>
