The University may develop new academic programs. This policy conceptualizes program authorization, which is the formal creation of a degree program, program major, program tracks, specializations, concentrations, areas of emphasis, program minors and/or certificates, as defined.

SCOPE

This policy applies to faculty and administrators when planning and approving new programs.

REASON FOR POLICY

To specify the University’s ability to authorize new programs and to specify the standards required.

DEFINITIONS

All new academic programs must adhere to the following hierarchical structure and related criteria and guidelines. Academic programs are defined as follows:

<th>DEFINITIONS</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Degree Program</td>
<td>An organized curriculum leading to a college degree in an area of study recognized as an academic discipline by the higher education community, as demonstrated by assignment of a Classification of Instructional Programs (CIP) code. Degree Program is the highest level within the academic program structure. Bachelor’s degrees require 120 credits, Master’s degrees a minimum of 30 credits post baccalaureate, and Doctoral degrees a minimum of 75 credits post baccalaureate.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Program Major</td>
<td>An organized curriculum offered as a major area of study that is part of an existing or proposed degree program and does not constitute sufficient distinct coursework, faculty, and instructional resources to be considered a separate degree program. A major requires completion of a minimum of 30 credits. There are cases where the Major and degree program names are synonymous, thus</td> creating only one major. Majors must be reasonably associated with the degree program under which it is offered and share a minimum of 15% of common core or prerequisite courses with other majors within the same degree program.

Program Tracks, Specializations, Concentrations, Areas of Emphasis, Etc.

Any organized curriculum that is offered as part of an individual student’s degree plan and which enhances or complements the degree to be awarded in a manner that leads to specific educational or occupational goals. In order to establish some uniformity across degree programs, this level of categorization should be termed a Track unless a different terminology is required for accreditation purposes. A Track must be reasonably associated with the Major/Degree under which it is offered and share a minimum of 15% of common core or prerequisite courses with other Tracks within the same Major.

Program Minors

Minors consist of an organized curriculum offered to students who are not obtaining a degree in the Major of which the Minor is a component. Minors require a minimum of 12 credits.

Certificates

Certificates consist of an organized curriculum offered as a distinct area of study that leads to specific educational or occupational goals. The minimum number of credits for an Undergraduate Certificate is 15 and the minimum for a Graduate Certificate is 15 credits.
