Nepotism Policy #1710.205

INITIAL EFFECTIVE DATE: July 2005
LAST REVISION DATE: March 8, 2024
RESPONSIBLE UNIVERSITY DIVISION/DEPARTMENT: Division of Human Resources Employee & Labor Relations

POLICY STATEMENT

Relationship to another individual employed by the University shall not constitute a bar to hiring, promotion or reappointment, provided, that no employee shall be under the direct or indirect supervision or control of a related individual. The University retains the right to refuse to appoint a person to a position in the same department, division or facility, whereby his/her relationship to another employee can create an adverse impact on supervision, safety, security, morale, or involves a potential conflict of interest.

Individuals should not be employed in a department or unit, which will result in a subordinate-supervisor relationship between such individuals and any related individual as defined above through any “line of authority.”

Related individuals, as defined by this policy, may not be supervised or work in the same division, department, or unit without prior approval from the Assistant Vice President of Human Resources and the Vice President in charge of Human Resources.

Florida International University, as a member of the State University System of Florida, is an Equal Opportunity, Equal Access Affirmative Action Employer. FIU prohibits discrimination based on race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, gender expression, pregnancy, religion, age, disability, marital status, veteran status, and other protected categories. The University’s commitment extends to its programs and activities, applicants, students, and employees.

SCOPE

This policy is applicable to all out-of-unit faculty and staff and is not applicable to faculty and staff whose position is covered under a collective bargaining agreement with the University.

REASON FOR POLICY

To ensure that no preferential treatment will be afforded to individuals based on relationships that may place undue or inappropriate influence on terms and conditions of employment.
