POLICY STATEMENT

Once submitted, end-of-semester grades (except incompletes, which default at the end of two consecutive terms) are final. They are subject to change only through a Change of Grade process to correct an error in computation or transcribing, or where part of the student's work has been unintentionally overlooked.

SCOPE

This policy applies to all undergraduate and graduate academic credit courses.

REASON FOR POLICY

To explain the policy on change or correction of grades.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Office of the Registrar makes available the Change of Grade process on the University website and processes submitted change of grades.

The faculty member who taught the course typically initiates the change or correction of grades and the work flow is approved by the Dean or designee.

The Office of the Provost reviews and acts upon change of grade approvals for undergraduate courses completed beyond one calendar year.

Graduate Dean or designee reviews and acts upon change of grade approvals for graduate courses completed beyond one calendar year.
