POLICY STATEMENT

FIU undergraduate students who are academically dismissed from the University or who have a cumulative GPA below a 2.0, and who subsequently receive an Associate of Arts degree from another Florida public institution of higher learning, if readmitted to FIU will have their grade point average calculated again. Students readmitted under Academic Salvage will be credited with a maximum of 60 semester credit hours.

SCOPE

This policy applies to undergraduate degree-seeking students.

REASON FOR POLICY

To provide academic pardon to former FIU undergraduate students who have a history of inadequate academic performance at the University and who subsequently obtain an Associate of Arts degree from a Florida public institution.

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Students must follow the regular readmission application process and complete the Academic Salvage form for consideration for Academic Salvage by the student's academic dean.
