SUBJECT (R*)	EFFECTIVE DATE (R*)	POLICY NUMBER (O*)
Conditional Admission of Master's Applicants	June 27, 2014	380.092

POLICY STATEMENT (R*)

A unit may admit Master's applicants who do not meet the established minimum admission requirements, as exceptions, up to 10% of their admitted pool for one academic year. These students will be admitted with the condition that they earn a cumulative GPA of 3.0 upon the completion of 9 graduate credits within one year of term of admission or less. If more than 9 credits are completed in the term when the 9 credits milestone is reached, all credits taken will be calculated in the cumulative GPA to determine if the condition has been met. Failure to satisfy this condition will result in automatic dismissal from the program. The dismissal cannot be petitioned by the program. However, dismissed students may apply for readmission to the program after one full year (three consecutive terms) from the dismissal date.

REASON FOR POLICY (O*)

The purpose of this policy is to establish the requirements for the conditional admission of graduate students to a program.

RELATED INFORMATION (O*)

2-Term Conditional Admission policy (policy number 380.090) is eliminated.
