Enrollment Management and Services Policy

December 1, 2018

1310.021

A clear description of all functions of Enrollment Management and Services must be posted in the University Catalogs and on the FIU web site.

The functions, processes, and procedures of the Division of Enrollment Management and Services are crucial to sustained University growth. Proper utilization of these services is vital to admission applicants at all levels, as well as students who utilize financial aid and registration services. Therefore, this policy exists to explain how to find functions, processes, and procedures of the component parts of Enrollment Management and Services.
