POLICY STATEMENT

Florida International University (FIU) recognizes that faculty, staff, and students may use names other than their legal names to identify themselves.

I. FIU is committed to using and adapting processes to use a chosen first name where feasible and when the use of the legal name is not required to comply with laws and FIU rules, policies, or regulations. Any faculty, staff, or student may elect to identify a chosen first name and chosen pronoun in addition to their legal name.

II. There are certain documents and communications that require use of an individual’s legal name. These documents include, but are not limited to, driver’s licenses, Social Security cards, Tax Identification Number cards, and/or passports. For an individual to change the name used for designated official University records, documentation of a legal name change is required. Examples of designated official University records includes, but are not limited to:

- i. Admissions records;
- ii. Official transcripts;
- iii. Enrollment verifications;
- iv. FIU email address;
- v. Employment and personnel records;
- vi. Paychecks and tax documents;
- vii. Financial aid records;
- viii. Medical records;
- ix. Disciplinary records;
- x. Diplomas;
- xi. Federal, international, or state reporting records; and
- xii. Law enforcement records.

III. The University will display the chosen first name to the University community where feasible and appropriate and make a good faith effort to update reports, documents, and systems accordingly.

IV. An individual’s chosen first name may be used in University-related systems (PantherSoft and Canvas) and documents, except where the use of the legal name is required by law or the University, as defined in Section II of this policy statement.

SCOPE

To provide all FIU faculty, staff, and students the opportunity to designate a chosen first name and chosen pronoun.

REASON FOR POLICY

Florida International University is committed to providing the highest quality educational and employment experience to its students, faculty, and staff in a nurturing and supportive environment. In doing so, the institution is committed to ensuring that instruction and services are delivered in a manner that is reflective and supportive of its community.

DEFINITIONS

TERM	DEFINITIONS
Chosen First Name	The first name by which a person wishes to be known and to have appear in University systems and when conducting day-to-day University business. The chosen name does not affect the individual's last name, which must remain the person's legal name.
Legal Name	The last name or surname recorded on an individual's legal identification and used in designated official records at the University.
