

Doctoral Dissertation and Master's Thesis Grading #380.031

INITIAL EFFECTIVE DATE:	LAST REVISION DATE:	RESPONSIBLE UNIVERSITY DIVISION/DEPARTMENT
February 3, 2026	February 3, 2026	University Graduate School

POLICY STATEMENT

Dissertation courses (7979, 7980-7989) and thesis courses (6970-6972, 6975) can only be awarded grades of IP, P (Passing), F (Failing), or U (Unsatisfactory). The IP grade indicates satisfactory progress for the semester towards completion of the dissertation or thesis. The P grade is assigned after the successful defense of the dissertation or thesis. Once completed, all previous IP grades will be updated to a final grade of P by the Office of the Registrar.

The U grade is assigned when a student's progress does not meet the faculty or committee expectations for the semester. The U grade will not affect the student's GPA nor interfere with the student's ability to continue working toward completion of their dissertation or thesis. Students who receive a U grade will be allowed to register in dissertation or thesis credits in the following semester. U grades will not be changed to P grades and will remain on the student's transcript as a U. This applies even once the student successfully defends, only IP grades will be changed to P.

The F grade is assigned when there is a failure to progress during the semester and will negatively affect the student's GPA. The continuation of the student in the program needs to be assessed by a minimum of two faculty including the Graduate Program Director in accordance with the program's requirements/handbook (if applicable).

SCOPE

University Community (faculty, graduate students, and University Graduate School administration).

REASON FOR POLICY

This policy sets forth the grading requirements for dissertation courses (7979, 7980-7989) and thesis courses (6970-6972, 6975) in doctoral and thesis master's programs. This policy ensures consistency in grading practices as students progress toward completion of their final dissertation or thesis.

TERM	DEFINITIONS
Dissertation Courses (7979, 7980-7989)	Dissertation Courses intended enrollment for dissertation credits for the completion of a formal dissertation and enrollment for doctoral students who have advanced to candidacy.
